Censoring Donald Trump is more “dangerous to democracy” than anything he could ever say

Oligarchs and social media giants are now claiming a monopoly on “the truth”, that should worry everyone

Kit Knightly

The media have called the election for Biden, but the counting goes on and there is a legal case in the offing. But whoever emerges from this deluge of sludge, fraud and propaganda to become president of the United States, there has undoubtedly already been one big loser – freedom of speech.

Late on Tuesday night/early Wednesday morning, Donald Trump – the elected President of the United States – emerged from the White House to make a speech.

He accused the Democratic party, the political establishment, the media and tech giants/social media companies of working together to steal the election and put Biden in the Whitehouse.

You likely didn't see all of it, because most of the mainstream news channels simply refused to broadcast it. Watch this clip:

Earlier that night, MSNBC had cut away from Trump's first speech claiming victory, with anchor Brian Williams claiming it was “not rooted in reality” and “dangerous”.

Social media companies were doing the same thing. Within hours of it being set up Facebook deleted a group protesting the election result, while twitter reduced the President's timeline to this:

This isn't about defending Donald Trump, or even agreeing that the election was rigged (although there is plenty of evidence to suspect as much). This is about a principle. Donald Trump is the elected head of state, and he is being denied a platform to address the people he represents by the faceless servants of corporate media oligarchs.

This is a terrible, terrifyingly awful precedent to set.

The owners of Comcast or Warner Bros or Disney or Facebook or Twitter are not elected officials. They have no legal authority, and thus no accountability. Yet they are claiming the right to determine what elected officials can and cannot say to the people who elected them.

There is a strain of thought that this kind of censorship is justified. “Spreading disinformation puts lives at risk”, they say. “If the media stopped people lying we wouldn’t be in this mess” or “the news should only broadcast the truth!”.

The argument goes that “allowing Donald Trump to “publicly undermine our democratic institutions will erode the public trust and could lead to violence.”

But I would argue that empowering billionaires to hold a monopoly on “the truth” is far more dangerous to democracy than anything Trump could ever say.

To people inclined to disagree, I leave these five questions. Answer them, if you can:

- 1 Who made the decision to censor the elected President of the United States?
- 2 Who granted them this power?
- 3 Whose interests do they serve?
- 4 To whom are they accountable?
- 5 In the future, who gets to decide “the truth”?

The powers that be (call them globalists, bankers, elite whatever) have nearly got all their ducks in a row, the last piece of their puzzle is america. The land of the 'free' and home of the 'brave', who have been indoctrinated to believe they are exceptional and have rights under their revered constitution.

I think the events we are seeing are all part of the planned transfer from the dollar as the reserve currency and installation of global govt (new world order whatever its called)

Here is why i think this

Election fraud is obvious and off the scale, its blatant and has left a trail a dog with no nose could follow. Given that the powers that be are not stupid and have literally unlimited resources, this has disturbed me for the last week....why commit fraud that is so obvious....because they want it to be discovered.

The sequence of events is telling.

Election

Fraud on a massive scale

Trump team calls foul

MSM declares biden winner

Dems are celebrating and dancing in the street feeling euphoria all across the the DNC, BLM, Antifa etc

Trump team collates evidence that had been left like breadcrumbs to find

Dancing Dems, still celebrating

Trump team goes off to the courts.

The Dems euphoria continues, parties, loving they 'beat the evil orange man bad'

Michigan authorities say 'oopsy we had a 'computer glitch' which was discovered handing that county back to trump and the republican senator victory

Dancing Dems, still celebrating

All Michigan counties now need to check software

SCOTUS makes first judgement re Pennsylvania – mail ballots to be set aside

Biden (accompanied by where's Waldo son Hunter) makes victory speech where he calls to 'unite' now, 'cease divisive rhetoric' and says '230 million thousand Americans have died from Covid – that's not a typo that's what he said '230 million thousand'

Cabal world leaders call biden to congratulate him on his tremendous victory

MSM celebrating

Republicans who didnt want trump to win start coming out of the woodwork

Dems, BLM, Antifa liberal loons still dancing and demanding defund the police, flexing their 'mandate'

From here i am hypothesizing

SCOTUS reviews election fraud cases, evidence is overwhelming (intentionally) and even liberal leaning judges can not pretend there was no fraud, no option but to award victory to trump

MSM Democrats woodwork republicans claim Supreme Court stack by trump resulting in him 'stealing the election'

MSM declare trump a 'dictator'

The emotional impact to the dancing in the street dems will be unfathomable
 Liberal meltdown that makes the Portland riots look like a teddybears picnic
 Western leaders boost the narrative trump is a dictator
 The extreme elements of the various well funded groups continue the wholesale destruction of communities, businesses, rioting, looting, shooting
 Trump supporters and normal non partisans citizens will arm up and go out to defend from these extreme elements. More rioting more shooting
 MSM keeps stoking fire 'trump is a dictator, he stole the election, against our constitution'
 Trump declares martial law to get control and reinstate law and order
 MSM cries 'see he is a dictator'
 Liberals continue meltdown
 Western leaders break off diplomatic ties with dictator trump
 Markets fall, billionaires loose some lunch money
 Western organisations (IMF, Bank of International Settlements, WTO, UN etc) determine america can no longer be considered legitimate and make moves for transfer of reserve currency'
 Reserve currency transferred to alternative, possibly a digital currency
 America crashes and burns and the powers that be now do not have to pander to a major player who's citizens falsely believe they are free
 Global govt rounds up remainder dissidents, both from Democrat (they have served their purpose after all) and Republican camps and puts them in FEMA camps
 Most other countries under global govt do the same to any and all dissidents.

End of story, thank you for your time.

The networks are pulling away from Trump's speeches because they're ..... boring. I'll get back to this in a while.

But first let me remind that in the 2016 campaign the media gave Trump three billion dollars worth of free advertising because they found him so entertaining. It was one of the big factors leading to his election.

Bear in mind that everybody knew that Trump, if he lost, was going to accuse the election of having been rigged whether it was or not. In '16 he was blathering on about that even before the vote, obviously for no other reason than he wanted an excuse. He cried wolf, so this time nobody was going to believe him even if the election were rigged. The trouble with Trump is that he doesn't explicate, he just blurts. Even now, if for once he was to put forth a calm and intelligent explanation of his grievances, the media just might be intrigued enough to give him their full attention.

The networks are tyrannized by their advertisers — they're afraid of alienating them and make assumptions about what are acceptable to the advertisers. The advertisers are tyrannized by “the public” — they're afraid of alienating the public and make assumptions about what the public thinks. And the public is tyrannized by the networks. So it's a vicious circle or vicious triangle and the military-weapons-intelligence complex plugs into it at the place before the news reporting. The reporters are lazy or scared and they report what they are given without question. Also, the medical-drug complex plugs in before the news. Something like 70% of the advertising revenue for the network news comes from drug companies.

“Joe Biden spent his first full day as US president-elect determined to hit the ground running, as he faces one of the most daunting challenges of any new occupant of the White House. The Democrat, who defeated Donald Trump to win election as the 46th president, immediately began work on what is likely to be a turbulent transition as he confronts the fast-spreading coronavirus, high unemployment, systemic racism, the climate crisis and a bitterly divided nation.”

“Yet even as the silent machinery of a transfer of power kicked inexorably into gear,...”

Jeez! Does someone actually get paid for this drearily clichéd bombast?

“...Trump still refused to concede defeat, insisting he would press ahead with legal challenges from Monday. There is no evidence of widespread election irregularities. On Sunday, the former president George W Bush joined those recognising Biden as the winner.”

Blah blah “pandemic-era election” – oh that’s good!

“...euphoria in major cities as people honked car horns, danced in the streets and turned Trump’s TV catchphrase against him: “You’re fired!”” Ooh retribution time!

What’s this?

“It was also hailed by observers around the world as a return to political orthodoxy...” Sehr interessant!

Well I'm sorry but as usual, my tolerance levels are giving out and by "This is the time to heal in America." I had had enough!

But note from the side:

"Can Biden and Harris put a bitterly divided America back together again?"

Of course they can!

Trump (and everyone else) have the inalienable right to dig a hole for themselves. Exaggerating, omitting, understating – most people do it, especially politicians. I lie quite often. It is an essential part of the so called freedom of expression, the freedom to make a fool of oneself. In my home country denying the holocaust is a punishable offense (ridiculous). Anything goes, one should be able to show one's true colors openly. Light is the best disinfectant.

Who are those bastards to decide what is true and what not, and to tell me what I can or cannot say or write?

In the following video, the X22 Report discusses the application of the Art of War in relation to the election; specifically:

#19. Let your plans be dark and impenetrable as night, and when you move, fall like a thunderbolt.
– The Art of War by Sun Tzu – Section VII: Maneuvering

https://en.wikisource.org/wiki/The\_Art\_of\_War\_\(Sun\)/Section\_VII/Section_VII)

But given that the Patriots' plans have mostly been communicated, and are certainly predictable by any intelligence operation, I think #19 is not fully appropriate to this situation. Instead, I think it is more that the Deep State is caught in a paradoxical trap. Its overall approach has been to mask or distort the reality of its own existence and operations; and this has been very successful in controlling the general population. To address the Patriots, however, it needs to broadcast a proper understanding of reality; and this would require the Deep State to simultaneously present itself truthfully. This in itself would probably lead to the collapse of the Deep State and hence they have no option but continue on with the delusions.

HERE'S SOME ANSWERS

Who made the decision to censor the elected President of the United States? The “non-elected” cabal who controls the political duopoly and mainstream media news—the national security state.

Who granted them this power? Although there's a constitution and three branches of government the national security state comprised of 17 intelligence agencies working hand-in-glove with the military industrial complex have unlimited power. Their main objective is to sustain the Empire's stability nationally and internationally. Within the US, state-run mainstream media news controls the population via psychological manipulation better known as propaganda. When propaganda no longer works militarized police forces are deployed to squash riots or rebellions.

Whose interests do they serve? The first objective of the national security state is to protect the economic interests of “corporate America.” This includes multinational corporations, the big banks, Wall Street, the energy industry, etc...

To whom are they accountable? To the owners of the industries cited above. However, It should be noted that when societies collapse the military usually seizes control.

Who gets to decide “the truth”? Within all nation-states “the truth” is determined by designated authorities assigned to regulate the population’s access to selective bits of carefully edited information.

The importance of controlling information and establishing the “official narrative” was explained in Edward Bernays’ 1928 treatise entitled Propaganda: “The conscious and intelligent manipulation of the organized habits and opinions of the masses is an important element in democratic society. Those who manipulate this unseen mechanism of society constitute an invisible government which is the true ruling power of our country.

We are governed, our minds are molded, our tastes formed, our ideas suggested, largely by men we have never heard of. This is a logical result of the way in which our democratic society is organized. Vast numbers of human beings must cooperate in this manner if they are to live together as a smoothly functioning society.

Whatever attitude one chooses to take toward this condition, it remains a fact that in almost every act of our daily lives, whether in the sphere of politics or business, in our social conduct or our ethical thinking, we are dominated by the relatively small number of persons.....”

The role of Trump is the Covid narrative is very unclear.

He initially dismissed it and when the crisis was apparently getting worse in March, Trump was again hesitant in closing the borders to the USA.

As the president of the USA, he would surely know whether it was a hoax, real or being manipulated.

He chose to keep Fauci and Birx knowing full well their connection to Gates.

Again he never bothered to get Ferguson’s model independently verified.

In early May he publicly abandoned Ferguson’s model and said he was working with real data.

His priority was getting the economy reopened and rightly so but he also transferred huge sums to Wall Street.

He publicly blamed China and the WHO and defunded the WHO but made a huge donation to Gates owned Gavi.

Last month he claimed he was PCR positive for Covid but had little to no symptoms and then downplayed the virus despite in April claiming it was a vicious virus that killed his friend.

It's really hard to evaluate his role in Event Covid but the evidence would indicate he is controlled opposition.

From a speech in Congress in The Bankruptcy of The United States United States Congressional Record, March 17, 1993 Vol. 33, page H-1303.

Speaker-Rep. James Traficant, Jr. (Ohio) addressing the House:

“Prior to 1913, most Americans owned clear, allodial title to property, free and clear of any liens or mortgages until the Federal Reserve Act (1913) “Hypothecated” all property within the federal United States to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve – in which the Trustees (stockholders) held legal title. The U.S. citizen (tenant, franchisee) was registered as a “beneficiary” of the trust via his/her birth certificate. In 1933, the federal United States hypothecated all of the present and future properties, assets and labor of their “subjects,” the 14th Amendment U.S. citizen, to the Federal Reserve System.

In return, the Federal Reserve System agreed to extend THE FEDERAL United States CORPORATION [emphasis added] all the credit “money substitute” it needed. Like any other debtor, the federal United States government had to assign collateral and security to their creditors as a condition of the loan. Since the federal United States didn’t have any assets, they assigned the private property of their “economic slaves”, the U.S. citizens as collateral against the unpayable federal debt. They also pledged the unincorporated federal territories, national parks forests, birth certificates, and nonprofit organizations, as collateral against the federal debt. All has already been transferred as payment to the international bankers.

Unwittingly, America has returned to its pre-American Revolution, feudal roots whereby all land is held by a sovereign and the common people had no rights to hold allodial title to property. Once again, We the People are the tenants and sharecroppers renting our own property from a Sovereign in the guise of the Federal Reserve Bank. We the people have exchanged one master for another...”

Interesting.

I discovered in 2014 that Australia was also a corporation. The Commonwealth of Australia Pty Ltd registered business address the Aust Embassy in Washington.

Earliest records i could find....yes 1933.

Hello Stregs: Common Wealth countries fall under a different set of legal and jurisdictional rules. They are generally considered Unitary States. Democracy?

Excerpted from: Unitary state – Wikipedia

“A unitary state is a state governed as a single power in which the central government is ultimately supreme. The central government may create (or abolish) administrative divisions (sub-national units). [1] Such units exercise only the powers that the central government chooses to delegate. Although political power may be delegated through devolution to regional or local governments by statute, the central government may abrogate the acts of devolved governments or curtail (or expand) their powers. A large majority of the world's states (166 of the 193 UN member states) have a unitary system of government. [2]

Unitary states stand in contrast with federations, also known as federal states. In federations, the provincial governments share powers with the central government as equal actors through a written constitution, to which the consent of both is required to make amendments. This means that the sub-national units have a right of existence and powers that cannot be unilaterally changed by the central government. [3]“

When I went to Corpus Christi School in Oldham and I asked a simple question, I was not expecting an extremely negative reaction I did put my hand up to ask...She indicated that I could speak. She had just spent 30 minutes teaching us the Catechism and The Bible – and Adam and Eve..In fact she was a good teacher about 70 years old..well she seemed that to me..I wasn't yet 5.

Yeh – but where did God come from?

They never took my pants down..but I did get the Strap..It didn't leave any marks...but when I was 7 years old – I just fucked off...I played Truant. I couldn't stand any more of this Religious Indoctrination...but this older girl found me wandering the streets of Chadderton and took me home..My desertion from school caused a slight problem, and so I got another teacher – and she taught me the basics – you know sums and stuff. I am not claiming she taught me the Periodic table...just the basics

Hydrogen Oxygen and Carbon

1. Hydrogen + 2 Molecules of Oxygen – Very Good – That is Water.
2. Carbon + 2 Molecules of Oxygen – Very Good. That is what our lungs do..We breathe out CO2 – very good for Plants and Every Living Thing.
3. Carbon + 1 Molecule of Oxygen – Not Good Carbon Monoxide is Deadly Poisonous..Its a silent kller It doesn't in itself smell at all,,but it may well overwhelm you and kill you if you do not have enough ventilation, and have any kind of fire to warm your home up,,,

So if you have got a Chimney do a Flame test – a smoky match will do, to see if the smoke goes up the chimney...If it doesn't call a Chimney Sweep and get yourself a carbon monoxide detector.

In my experience – he was completely lovely. He didn't rip us off off..Quite The Reverse...He said that wood burning stove is worth a lot of money. He could have offered me a tenner..and I would have said take it away.

Blimey My first school is still going..Still looks pretty much the same,

OK I made a few mistakes H2O – but i hope you get the gist

Try studying Walter Russell and his periodic table and the musical scale underpinned by mathematics of the Pyramid Code series of videos on Youtube.

The Electric Universe and Ken Wheeler should fill in a few blanks and Nichola Tesla, Steinmetz, Oliver Heaviside, Paul Dirac and Thomas Townsend Brown the rest.

None of the above is taught in the dumbed down education system because it makes you think for yourself, not something that modern science can cope with.

No, thinking for yourself is fundamental in science, or no progress could ever occur. The real problem is that modern politicians can't cope with sceptical science and scientists, as that ruins the use of establishment science to justify their policies.

"The owners of Comcast or Warner Bros or Disney or Facebook or Twitter are not elected officials. They have no legal authority, and thus no accountability. Yet they are claiming the right to determine what elected officials can and cannot say to the people who elected them."

I can see how that impression could be drawn. But I'm pretty sure none of those named run the country either. So the question is begging to be asked. Who does ? Because this is evidence that it's government doesn't. It's evidence that a president is nothing more than a voicepiece of a larger, more powerful, (but never visible ) government. And that's the body who tell Comcast, Facebook, Warner bros, Hollywood, Twitter, Youtube et all what they can and can't say.

So they, or the others, aren't claiming anything really. They too are 'following orders'. Is it not obvious that anything mainstream is also a governmental arm ? Part of their propaganda apparatus ?

I remember four years ago when Trump was running. Nobody here(UK) took him seriously. Then again, they didn't take Hilary Clinton seriously. It looked like heads you lose, tails you get beat.

Trump had cut his teeth via the mainstream. It's a production line for celebrities. He represented the American dream. He was the man who pretty much took a slum called New York and gave it a makeover. Slums became luxury apartments and offices. OK he didn't help those further down the ladder, but they weren't his problem. He's a money man. But many still worshipped him or what they perceived he represented.. They drooled over his towers and cheered and clapped when he turned up in sitcoms. But what had he ever done in the field of politics ?

Unfortunately, we live in a world that would likely put the winner of America's Got Talent or a soap star in The White House than a politician. Someone they could 'relate' to.

Trump jumped on the 'conspiracy' bandwagon looking for votes before he won his election. He hinted that he would 'drain the swamp'. Well, he had 4 years to. Maybe he liked the water too much. He said he'd release the JFK files. He did, A few that nobody was shocked to read. But the real meat and potatoes are still under wraps( because there's nothing to hide 63 years later).

He promised to open the UFO files ( stop laughing, people believe in them). He promised to expose 'fake nooz'. That was taken to be the lying mainstream. Did he do it ? Well i didn't see that. But now that he's been ousted by ballot he suddenly wants to. Is that a reaction to outrage over rigged elections or an angry boy kicking out because he looks small.

Many still don't believe he won his own election legitimately; even more are sure both Bush elections were rigged. And here in England, hardly anyone believes the votes mean anything. A world government is a world government. They say who runs what and who runs where. It's been this way since we entered the 20th century. Ask any Bilderberger or any Rockefeller or any Rosthschild.

Trump said publicly on mainstream 2 weeks ago that this election would be rigged. He added it would be the most crooked election in America's history. A bold claim considering America's history. He didn't say how exactly. He still hasn't. But it would suggest that two weeks before the public went to vote, he'd been informed that he'd been pipped at the post by Biden. There's your evidence of scripted bullshit.

I'll speculate here.

I don't believe in democracy. I believe it's still the same 'social experiment' that it was originally in ancient Greece. It died then too.

It does provide a useful social tool for placating the average man- the largest demographic in any country. It makes them believe that any man can earn any amount of money according to his progress in his chosen career. He can climb the financial and social ladder. And that he gets a say in who governs the country. It gives the state leaders a great opportunity to use the words 'Liberty' and 'Freedom' and remind their people how blessed they are and then juxtapose that with a reference to dictatorships and communism.

But it doesn't really work. The people can't be trusted to pick the right men and women. And it's too big a responsibility to entrust them with. They might hinder the progress of the machine that is the NWO.

The word synonymous with democracy is freedom. And our freedom is precious. It keeps our personal sovereignty in place; our individuality.

The word synonymous with eugenics is nihilism. Both advance the 'truth' that the larger part of the race are superfluous to requirements. That the bottom three quarters are in need of 'cleansing' away. And this is the crux of our problem now. Not just America's or the UK's. Everyone's.

It is impossible to convince any democratic society that eugenics and a process of socially technological 'pruning' is the best thing for the planet and its population. Both can't exist side by side.

The real government- the one running all countries- have said this much for a century. And the bigger names that advanced the idea of global genocide by any means whatsoever, have said a free society is the enemy of the scientific, logical one. So one has to go.

The eugenicists / scientists will produce endless stats and data to support their position. Not necessarily genuine as recent events have proven.. And they'll point to the miracles science has delivered and the direction it's new toy( AI) is taking the world. Forget religion or God or the notion of soul or of spirituality. Like the covid 19 virus, they can't be demonstrated and proven.

Democracy has to be shown to be a farcical, unworkable system. It has to be shown as dangerous. It has to be proven that despots can get into power by crooked means and that your votes aren't secure enough to be trusted. This will be phase one of the much vaunted 'great reset'. Pull that off and the whole global economy and currency will shortly follow. This is 'the covid era' ( their next mantra). Bye bye Democracy, come on down Dystopia.

We've just had the most powerful allegiance in the west, the US and the UK led by two cartoon characters who can barely speak outside of a script. Two parodies of politicians. And this last 12 months has seen the real need for powerful leadership in what we were told is 'a war' against a global pandemic. They sat down and waited for the NWO's scientists to instruct us – through them – why we need to remain under their boot while the syringes are filled.

Poor old Donald has been hoist with his own petard ( to coin a mad Shakespearian phrase). His trademark arrogance and swagger has been inflicted on the world for 4 long years. Even Narcissus blushed. His juvenile tantrums when challenged have never been far from the surface. His boasts made everyone cringe. His affected manner and speech grated. And, above all, his petulance made people laugh- including his own party. He hasn't learned from his past. He must be the only Casino to file for bankruptcy in Atlanta. Bluffing isn't his colour.

Now, he needs to be taken seriously and has, what he says, is a serious point to make, it's all come back to bite him on the bottom cheeks. It's being seen as yet more petulance from the fragile yet expanding ego of a megalomaniac. This is what happens when a boy who cries wolf for four years wants to be saved.

Interesting what you say about the 2 weeks before comment of trump...I was looking at the astrology charts of both yesterday and noticed a coinciding transit that suggested to me that both were given the call and told exactly how it would play out approx 20 Oct...this will repeat again around 17 nov...there is some more to go in this whole game astro wise...not just for US elections...

the Davos mob have postponed their meeting until June ...so it would appear even they are waiting for something....astrology has a lot of explanation for much that has happened this year but in general people seem to see astrology as even more unreliable than the tripe churned out by media...

Wow...I have refrained from throwing in the astrology until now...and that is an interesting point about the degree of aries...it has certainly felt like there has been some fissures operating in various brains....will we mention I am an Aries....smile mercury rx kicked it all off....the important date of 11 March...the eclipses in June/July followed....one basically on US foundation date and for Aussie friends Dan Andrews shared that birthday...another made hard aspect to Neptune that landed total confusion in many directions....while 3 big planets in Capricorn the restriction sector seemed to think we all should be locked up...those 3 have not been together in Capricorn like that since we were building pyramids...wonder did they lock down then...

so many transits, rx planets, eclipses ...we have been living through planetary arrangement rarely seen...at least it has been fascinating for any astrologer wanting to watch...smile. Though a few of them seemed to lose the plot as well and forget they were astrologers...

and sad to hear people are getting things stuck up their nostrils....I live in paradise and it was all over very rapidly here and we live basically as we did before 11 March...our premier had an election to deal with so she behaved...I am sure the pcr tests were set very low...some clowns are still hanging out in the local showground hoping for people to voluntarily turn up for the nose swabbing...very few are that silly.

The sentiments in your post prove that you are a serious researcher of the New World Order.

The NWO could not come into being were it not for the bought and paid for politicians.

This begs the question who paid for them and from whence did the money come from to achieve these Luciferian ends.

I have previously posted about the Illuminati and the fact that Jacob Rees Mogg has disclosed in Parliament that the Illuminati are taking powers to themselves, “Accepting that the Illuminati yes-men Freemasons are continuing to run their Order ab Chao plan to destabilise the world the following comments are with this in mind..

Censoring Donald Trump is more "dangerous to democracy" than anything he could ever say – OffGuardian
This is how it was done. The Illuminati has owned the world financial system since 1913. As a by product of this currency generator, untold trillions of dollars has been syphoned off to buy up and corrupt most politicians. They owe their allegience to secret societies and worse. "

Jacob Rees-Mogg, House of Parliament, Tues 03/09/2019.

Speech in respect of parliamentary process....

"The motion would allow a designated Member—or a few of the Illuminati who are taking the powers to themselves—to..... "

"Taking power to themselves"

Killer Gates,

"We are taking things that are, uh, you know, genetically modified organisms and injecting them into little kid's arms," said Gates in January 2015, before adding, "we just shoot 'em right into the vein." "So yeah I think maybe we should have a safety system where we do trials and test things out," continued Gates.

Even J Rees Mogg knows, so why are there no feature articles on the Illuminati?

These are the culprits, if you do not know who the target is then how can you eliminate the target?

I do not believe that the these power brokers are un-known to the readership and posters of the Off Guardian.

Exposure of these various stains on humanity and a fight for freedom of speech will undermine the money power brokers and give us back a clean democratic process.

Thanks Laurence.

I believe your 1913 date is reasonably accurate. Only because that's when the ante could be upped due to oil and money. The plans were drawn up a long time before.

In terms of Money , banking and the power they confer , look no further than the Rockefellers and Rothschilds.

They have become a far flung web with a tight grip. They know all men have a a price. And those who haven't just get offered more money until they change their own mind.

There are around 15 names that have helped to orchestrate this final war on the people.

Some will say there's no such thing as The Illuminati. I suppose they have a point as putting that sign over their various doors would be a bit of a give away. But we can refer them to an elite. It's all the same team with the same goals.

The essence and soul of the monster was born in Germany. It moved to America to complete the job via it's Military Industrial Genocide Complex. It was joined by England and Israel.

All of this has had to be put together meticulously and patiently. This particular chess match has too big a stake to lose.

It follows that secrecy and endless secret societies have been invaluable to these creatures.

Their propaganda machine have one main duty. To create an illusion the masses think is a reality. To deny the actual reality comes in tandem with that.

This is why the mainstream will never talk about any of this unless in a mainstream documentary designed to tell lies and expose those with the eyes to see are dismissed as 'crazy conspiracy theorists'.

This subtle propaganda trick works well in the shallow end of the pool as they watch and are instantly conditioned into thinking " well I'll agree with that, that way it's me who's clever and them who are crazy out there".

The latter are our army of blind and stupid. And we wonder why outnumbering the enemy is pointless..

Your reasoning, that "people can't be trusted to pick the right men and women" would certainly be shared by all megalomaniac leaders of the past, not to mention the globalist ones of the present. All that's missing is a watertight way to find a trustworthy dictator to lead and care for us dumb sheeple.

I openly dismiss the pretence. It's never been a genuine democracy. It's been faux. The reasoning you referenced was my opinion on the mentality of those who built it ; that they're really only keeping it in place to placate the majority and keep them in a state of misplaced satisfaction. Any 'watertight' reason to install a world dictator won't be needed. It's not a Bond film. What's being installed is a body of people who will share the responsibility a the new farm called Planet Earth.

Covid is a period of adjustment. Of that there seems little doubt. The word 'reset' is to mislead us into believing it's a necessity as we're all at the mercy of terrorists called germs. The reality is that how it's been tackled, how it's produced 'data' and 'predictions' and how that will lead to a 'cure' and destruction of the invisible beast will all be used as rationale for allowing the final apotheosis. Science has been harnessed by the NWO and is about to take the throne.

You are a little piece of data. We all are. They just need 'science' to provide reasons to implant us with dope and chips so we can be monitored or 'altered' from distance. Enter, Covid. And enter the software magnate who is suddenly a doctor.

When the information changes ( such as the identification and isolation of an actual virus), my opinion might.

When I was aware of this crisis in March, I knew the virus wasn't dangerous, cos I thought I had already had it..It was just a cold, nowhere near as bad as the flu. The main problem I had – I still went to gigs, was that my right ear was full of ear wax, and after motorhead, I could only hear that well in almost mono

Then I saw the News. I thought ffs, I am not going anywhere near a doctor or a hospital, but I didn't want to give the impression to my wife that there was anything wrong with me, rather than just normal. The problem actually helped me to get to sleep when she was snoring in my ear

So I bought these ear drops from Asda.. They contained Hydrogen Peroxide and urea (p1ss)..when she had gone to sleep, I would sneak a few ear drops, and put them in my ear – and the tiny bottle back in my sock drawer with my underpants.

I was now almost completely deaf. Left ear pressed to the sheet on our bed, but my right ear was bubbling away..All I could hear was bubbles – a little bit like diving except it was all in my head in real time..So did this for a few days, weeks, but no longer than a month...

I could now hear again in full stereo and 3D

Then they shutdown All The Pubs All The Festivals...

I refused and still refuse to wear a mask, so now could no longer go and see my friends, except for a few weeks..My wife told me what it was like..Sit There, Don't Speak. Don't Clap. Don't Stand Up. If You need to go to the toilet indicate to one of the bar staff – thatyou are dying for a piss..They will escort you...

I go to The Pub To Dance.

It wasn't exactly my kind of thing...And I did try and tell them on Facebook – and they just replied that I was completely F'ckin' Mad- even The Musicians' Wives.

Well all The Pubs and Music Venues are Shut now.

You should have Complained and Protested Then...but you were so Brainwashed then, and still are now.

This is Not Going to Go Away, by You Sitting There Doing Nothing.

This whole anti-Trump stuff going on is like something out of a science novel. One in particular, Nopalgarth, a short story by Jack Vance, kind of captures what is happening. In the story, without explaining the entire plot, other dimensional beings take over our bodies and neural systems, like an invisible parasite, and feed off our emotional energy. They also control the emotional responses of their hosts, us human beings. It is difficult to explain the whole plot, but if someone doesn't this have psychic energy parasite host, people who have it feel an irrational hatred for the host-less person (sorry, my explanation is not the best, as it is complicated story to easily simplify). So, anyway, this one character in the story, a well-liked professor of something, has his host removed, and all his friends, and his girlfriend, suddenly feel an intense distaste for him, but they can't easily rationalize or understand why they feel that way. So, the subconscious searches for reasons to dislike the person, like little mannerisms suddenly become so irritating they literally want to run away from the person.

It is like this with the whole Trump business. I have old acquaintances who have fond memories of me as a person, but when they find out from reading my FB posts that I voted for Trump (mainly because of his 'end the endless wars' stance, as well as well as his view on outsourcing jobs) they feel compelled to regularly come to my posts and enumerate the many reasons why 'Trump is bad'. I am still the same person as I was before Trump came along (never heard of him before 2016, actually), but I get absolutely hammered by old acquaintances who became FB friends based on their impressions from the past of me as a reasonable and honest person..

I think my comments are logical, but I just get hit with same negative platitudes, 'he lies all the time', 'he insulted a crippled person 6 years ago – IT'S ON TAPE', I could just keep going on with quoting the same old talking points of why they hate him so much. They love using capital letters and exclamation points to make sure I am listening: "HE LIES ALL THE TIME!!!!", stuff like that. Why is Biden a good choice? The answer is simple, Biden is not Trump, Trump is bad, therefore, by default, Biden is good because he is not Trump. The reasoning is actually as simplistic as that, by people who I considered intelligent.

It is spooky, definitely ‘V for Vendetta’-ish.

What has happened in the USA over the last few days has been incredible but not unpredictable.

In a desperate attempt to remove Trump they have literally thrown all their shit at this.

As this article highlights, the Silicon Valley giants have no right to decide to censor what an elected head of state can or can't say.

When they claim the information is false they don't say why it's false.

The MSM have also sunk even further into the gutter over this. The BBC, Sky, CNN have also said Trump has made baseless claims of fraud. But how would they know? Did they do any investigation? Absolutely none.

You don't have to look very far to discover undoubted corruption in the voting process.

Basically the fake news media have declared Biden as the winner and for leaders across the world to be congratulating Biden when no result has been declared is preposterous and speaks volumes about the sewage swamp that is politics.

I think the only exception is the president of Mexico who has acknowledged that due to allegations of corruption he will hold off.

If Big Tech are so desperate for truth then why haven't they censored the WHO, BBC, Sky, CH4, ITV, CNN, FOX, Bill Gates, WEF, world leaders, and the world of 'science' for their daily bullshit about Covid.

A lot of people are cheering on Biden but do they even know what his policies are?

The majority are so brain dead they haven't got a clue.

If you vote or support Biden you are cheering on the death of democracy, the Gates & WEF Great Reset, pro lockdowns, the death of the economy, mask mandates and socialism.

Isn't it ironic that Biden has now ditched the mask and his supporters who deemed it not safe to go to a ballot station are now packed like sardines on the streets.

Intelligence and the ability to think critically has been on the wane for quite some time but it's almost died a complete death in 2020.

Thinking is difficult, Carl Jung once said, why everyone judges.

They spent the last 4 years judging Trump instead of thinking how did he become president in the first place.

They just want their safe space back.

Not be terrorized by some form of truth

Trump was just holding up a mirror and they hated what they saw so the hate filled daily assault on anything trump was just their way of not handling aspects of themselves.

You're quite right, Big P.

On one level, what difference does it make whether Trump or Biden parks his backside in the Oval Office? Either way, America is just Israel's bitch and they are equally subservient trained monkeys serving the same powerful vested interests – the Zionist Lobby, Wall Street, Big

Censoring Donald Trump is more “dangerous to democracy” than anything he could ever say – OffGuardian
Pharma, Big Oil, the billionaire class, the war machine..

You can barely put a cigarette paper between them when it comes to foreign or domestic policy.

At most a few minor differences over identity politics issues like toilets for trannies (if that.)

The important development is the breakdown of the political system and all the institutions of the state.

Previously, the electoral system did at least ensure a relatively smooth transition of power. The system broke down in 2000, and again, far more seriously in 2016. This is far more the case in 2020.

The democrats, in league with the deep state, the FBI, CIA, MSM and Silicon Valley, sought to stage a coup to overthrow an elected president, the Russiagate Hoax. They engaged in a seditious conspiracy characteristic of impoverished Third World regimes. In the process, they showed themselves to be irredeemably corrupt, politicised and criminal in nature. Their true nature has been exposed for all the world to see. The MSM, which long ago abandoned all pretence of balance or objective journalism, shredded the last vestiges of its integrity and credibility.

This damage cannot be undone. It is terminal, far more significant than the election victory of any particular party or individual. The foundations of the state have been weakened, accelerating its inevitable collapse. They have passed the point of no return, and it is downhill all the way.

I appreciate this comment, Small p. I have witnessed the media fulfilling its promise, electing the new president, silencing the former president. Seen it lapped up unquestioningly by so many people who don't know or care to know that they are dupes and suckers, willingly marching themselves toward this new level of neo-feudalism. At least there's a positive message to be gained. Hope needs to survive if we are to carry on.

The article scratches the surface of a far bigger topic in my opinion. So yes, he was censored when they refused to show his speech. But isn't that the western modus operandi since... forever? the Media have too much power to decide what gets aired and what doesn't. A publisher, a newspaper, a social media platform – they are all privately owned, and they will allow precisely the perspectives that the owners want to promote, and effectively “censor” other opinions, because, you know, this is not public infrastructure and only those with “approved” opinions will get to reach millions of users. The rest – we are stuck not being heard. At all.

Is not being given coverage the same as censorship? it sort of is, isn't it? Maybe a bigger debate is needed – what should be public infrastructure and what should be private? but we know this will never happen. There is a reason the oligarchs own the media, it's because it is VITAL to control the narrative. Control the narrative, and you control everything. In this respect, censorship is the norm, not something that just happened now. Sure, the pretence was dropped, but the underlying reality is the same.

Personal identity and individual morality has long been substituted by the selfish needs of certifiable megalomaniacs to enfeeble any threat to their niche territory by maneuvering the crowd into divided sections for the purpose of regulation – are a network of god complex infallibles, decorated with beguiling masks to activate the welfare enchantment, but who's accurate value is determined only by It's own shameful ends.... .

What we're witnessing now – is the crowning point on that vulgar peak of self-centered growth – the final solution, to crush what remains of immunity from them, and ready transition through their distorted shadow of ideas , cast to blackout any dissenting opinion – but as they say, to stop the ruinous infection, stop it's transmission.

Putting a muffle on Trump is no different than having conflicting Covid-19 science censored by any number of media and web outlet, which is what has been occuring for the last 8 months.

Regardless, Trump should have been censored/ignored years ago, say about 6 months after he became president. Here in the USA, the news no longer exists. Instead every supposed newscast has turned into 'what foolishness/idiocy did Trump say/do today?'

If they are willing to silence Trump, they will silence anyone, as we have all found out this year. Literally a tidal wave of censorship, smearing and demonising against anyone contradicting the covid narrative.

Many genuinely anti establishment sites have been targeted in some way, including this site. What is also very telling are the supposed 'anti establishment' (cough) sites that have been left untouched.

More restrictions lifted in Victoria by the way, yet mandatory facemasks remain in place, despite there being no 'cases' for days now. And earlier this year, even Daniel Andrews stated 'facemasks were useless and a waste of time'.

Obviously someone persuaded him otherwise.

After the initial dismissal of facemasks as 'a waste of time', obviously the ones behind this scandemic decided it'd be good to have the world's population not only show submission by wearing them, but more importantly, it's about psychological conditioning of the 'new normal'.

I referred to my country and other 'developed' countries as 'fascist' years before anyone with any decency and knowledge was doing the same. I used to be met with responses along the lines of "I wouldn't go quite that far." Now everyone in the anti-covid 1984 camp is going that far. I also seem to be early in calling for chiefs in network tv land to be sued. (Although there's lot of attention being given to their role in the huge, harmful, criminal covid 19 pandemic hoax.) I think that those professional scam artists would be a great target for lawyers in the anti-covid 1984 camp to go after. Not just great, but perhaps the best targets, strategically. How could a case against their extremely harmful activities 'not' be easily made by lawyers with the desire and will to go there? Would a few court wins in that area not prod the cattle into noticing the slaughter that they are being led to? It might not be enough to stop the roll out of the global biosecurity police State, but it could lessen its harshness. Either way, It's my belief that that hell on earth won't last long. Only if there is no God can it possibly continue.

We might play by rules – laws, agreements, fairness – but the pushers of the huge, harmful, criminal covid 19 pandemic hoax don't. And that gives them the advantage.

sharon marlowe,

Our planet is very old. It has got very hot and very cold.

God couldn’t give a sh1t. He just left the Sun to it.

We wouldn’t still be here without it.

The sunshine brightens up my day – yet we still survive when its cold and dark.

We have done well more than 10,000 years. We probably are even older than the pterosaurs, but we ain’t as old as the fish.

People should get out more and explore it. The Gannets amazed us in the summer. They don’t need Thermals. They are extremely aerodynamically effective in a very strong wind. They make themselves very small when the wind is going down..and expand the full beauty of their wings when the wind is going up. They then from about 1,000 feet look for the fish and turn into a dive bomber. I had never seen anything like it.

Rogue agency CIA concocted Operation Hammer to change 3% of votes electronically. This was discussed before the election. CIA operatives have stood as Democrats in unprecedented numbers in recent elections.

The CIA Democrats in the 2020 elections

The Daily 202: Ex-CIA officers running for Congress as Democrats

When the Associated Press called Arizona you have to know that AP is in CIA's pocket and got kicked out of Russia for exactly that reason.

Manipulation of U.S. elections is well established: Letter fraud is easiest. Bev Harris, founder of Black Box Voting, a national, nonpartisan elections watchdog group, showed that electronic vote manipulation is easy, too. It just takes more effort because you need access to every machine.

Hacking Democracy Full Documentary (2006)

Election fraud is beyond doubt.

The bonus will be the scalp of the CIA, drug traffickers, human traffickers, terrorist sponsors who have never benefited the national security interests of the U.S.

Thanks for posting that. All this insanity was getting to me, and I was feeling a bit down. Steve Harley is still alive – a little bit older than me. I can really relate to his childhood history. My Spanish guitar had metal strings. I tried to play it at age 13 but got blisters. "Harley was born in 1951 in Deptford, London, as Stephen Malcolm Ronald Nice, and was the second of five children in his family. His father was a milkman and his mother a semi-professional jazz singer.<sup>[3]</sup>

During the summer of 1953, Harley contracted polio, causing him to spend four years in hospital between the ages of three and 16. He underwent two major surgeries in 1963 and

Censoring Donald Trump is more “dangerous to democracy” than anything he could ever say – OffGuardian
 1966. After recovering from the first operation at the age of 12, Harley was introduced to the poetry of T. S. Eliot and D. H. Lawrence, the prose of John Steinbeck, Virginia Woolf and Ernest Hemingway, and the music of Bob Dylan, which inspired him to a career of words and music.

From the age of nine, Harley began taking classical violin lessons and would later play as part of his grammar school orchestra. Aged 10, he began learning the guitar after receiving a Spanish nylon-strung guitar from his parents at Christmas. Harley was a pupil at Edmund Waller Primary School in New Cross, London. He then attended Haberdashers’ Aske’s Hatcham Boys’ Grammar School until he was 17. He left school without completing his advanced level exams.”

Great article and very true. It's not just happening in the US, it's happening around the world. The ability for there to be a massive paradigm shift and for uprooting of age old foundations and values requires those who dissent against these changes are silenced. Then you must continue to push and push until you wear the population down into accepting the changes. We are seeing it with COVID-19 which is being used as a key proponent in the dumbing down of freedoms and rights once considered inalienable. We have seen it with the theater of the US elections, paving the way for the gradual destruction of the social fabric of one of the top superpowers on the planet. Worst still, it's all coming from inside those countries by the people the citizenry have entrusted with power, influence and responsibility. Let's not pretend it also doesn't involve the wealthiest 1% who have for a long time broken open government policy making for their own benefit and agendas.

It's all happening because people are allowing it to happen. Current events are being weaponized and no matter how delusional and destructive it is and how much it serves to destroy the foundations of society, people will willingly sacrifice themselves and move aside to allow it be done to others ie. me and you. And you wonder why the 'elite' look down on the little people. Looking at current global events you can kind of see why they have very little respect, empathy, compassion and willingness to integrate among the masses when the masses themselves are willing to destroy themselves and allow their societies to be destroyed along with them.

Can you trust Trump? You can't trust any of them. During the 2016 election campaign he told Hilary Clinton that if he was president she would be in prison. Hmm.

However, he has had a tough ride with the media, and as the article says, ask your self who is controlling them. There has been conjecture about whether the ballot papers have a secret code on them to make sure large tranches of fake votes are not recorded. There are two videos in this link which state categorically that the election has been rigged.

Whether that is true or not I simply do not know. Clearly some believe it is true. But the "independent" fact checkers contest it.

I went looking for this secret code and came up with this. A woman took a magnifier (x10) to the stub of her ballot paper and there is clearly something hidden in there, Fact checkers say each state prints its own ballot papers, Make of this what you will.

"Spoonamore attested that he found evidence that Rove, in collaboration with IT company owner Mike Connell, had used computer fraud to steal the 2004 election for George W. Bush.

The tabulation system Connell designed allowed for the introduction of a third computer "between computer A and computer B," Spoonamore had written.

"This centralized collection of all incoming tabulations would make it easy for a single operator, or preprogrammed 'force balancing computer' to change the results in any way desired by the team controlling Computer C."

The answer to the first question is the cosmocrats.

The answer to the second question is they granted it themselves.

The answer to the third question is their own interests.

The answer to the fourth question is they are accountable to themselves.

The answer to the fifth and final question is: they do, unless the people take back the power that the cosmocrats have stolen from them in order to complete their agenda for world domination.

Have The Globalists and Their New World Order Finally Succeeded Against Donald J. Trump? By Stephen J. Gray

“If 2016 taught us anything, it is that if the establishment’s hegemony is imperiled, it will come together in ferocious solidarity — for the preservation of their perks, privileges and power. All the elements of that establishment — corporate, cultural, political, media — are today issuing an ultimatum to Middle America: Trump is unacceptable.”

Patrick J. Buchanan, August 12, 2016, The American Conservative.

<http://www.theamericanconservative.com/buchanan/yes-the-system-is-rigged/>

President Donald J. Trump has been a target ever since he was elected
By the establishment, the media, the tech giants and all the well connected
For four years and more, this man has been attacked and lied about daily
Assassination by words, are used on him hourly, in every T.V and news media unfairly

Almost half of the American voters, voted for him in their 2020 election
Yet, the media in America, Canada, and other countries brayed their objections
The pollsters also showed their bias by publishing daily fake news polls
And mail in ballots and COVID-19 were used to scare and achieve their goals

Donald J. Trump is the only president to raise objections to the “Trans Pacific Partnership”
And he also criticized the “Globalists” as well, while campaigning against any membership
He loves his country, and refused to capitulate to the evil in the political establishment
He defended his country’s sovereignty, against treasonous and treacherous movements

He stood up for the protection of the innocent pre-born child in the womb
While other depraved politicians supported this killing in abortion rooms
He spoke out about the looting and rioting, in so-called “democratic” cities
He is a strong advocate for Law and Order and supported the police in their duties

There is much more this man has done, for the people of America
 Yet, his detractors continue to slander, his courage and character
 One, of his opponents even called millions of Trump supporters "chumps"
 If this guy ever gets power then his "dark winter" could bring a severe slump

Anyway, Americans might come to regret, if Trump is no longer president
 And all the left wing activists, and lunatics are in power, and in ascendant
 The evidence can be seen, and is available, of this powerful plot by perverted political rumps
 Have The Globalists and Their New World Order Finally Succeeded Against Donald J. Trump?

"The Presidential election campaign in the United States and the controversial mandatory measles vaccination law in Germany provided perfect timing. What better than viral terror to influence public opinion and health policies on vaccine battles raging on both sides of the Atlantic?..."

"It is undeniable that the coronavirus epidemic has come on the scene at a crucial moment, when people everywhere are in revolt against the power of international financial institutions and multinational pharmaceutical corporations, whose stranglehold on governments is no longer hidden."

Difficult to argue against all that you mention.

However, what the next four years will bring will determine if President Trump, in concert with other forces, has been setting up the rapacious New World Order, in order to carry public opinion for the arrests that will inevitably follow.

Actions designed to cleanse Humanity of the spiritual degradation which I and I think you know exist, will not sit well with most people. In fact a state of collective shock and disconnect will exist.

My posts very often determine who is responsible for what ails the World. I do not blindly follow the advertised narrative but seek other reasons that account for the seemingly lack of progress on Vaccines and Autism, Vaccines generally, the Human rights abuses in respect of not only the Palestinians but all other peoples of the World desecrated by the PNAC war machine, the medical pharma death machine, I could go on the list is endless.

If we are still able to hold a conversation, in six months time on this site, then we should by then have seen positive action that will prove if the white hats are in control and not the Illuminati.

If not I will see you in the Gulag.

I hope that I am in the next cell to you when you can tell me how wrong I was and how right you were.
